Managers – "Managing your child actor's career!"

Guest Speakers on Nov. 7th

Location

RCU, 1010 Grant Ave., Novato

Sean & Taki Kenney will join Alan Liss to be guests on our pro "entertainment industry" panel. Sean is a Veteran Actor, best known from his role of Captain Pike in the original TV series, Star Trek. He also has a life long love of photography and has done head shots for stars such as John Travolta, Christian Slater and Molly Ringwald. Sean will speak on Acting and explain the "Head Shot," the actor's calling-card. In addition Sean will offer photo-sessions! Taki is a successful entrepreneur who once managed her nephew Nathan Nishiguchi's acting career through many TV commercials, TV roles, and Film appearances. Nathan's most popular role was a reoccurring role on Full House as Harry, the boy next door and friend of BJ. Taki will speak about managing a child actor's career.

Children are asked to come to the workshop prepared with a memorized monologue of three minutes or less to perform in front of our panel. SSPI will provide cold-reading scripts and improvisational techniques to further showcase the children's talents as actors.
